Description of the partner organizing/hosting the project :	Solidarity Garden is an inclusion project for people who are facing several social difficulties. The workcamp will be an opportunity for you to work together and take part to this human adventure. Since 2001, our organisation welcomes volunteers and workers in various orchards, farm, beehives and organic vegetable gardens. Members of the organisation come each day in the solidarity garden to pick their vegetables on the advice of the volunteers and workers. We also lead actions for environmental education towards youth.
Description of work :	During two weeks, you will take part in the farm's life and help the workers in their everyday tasks of organic farming and beekeeping. This year we have two projects : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- renovate and create beehives of many kinds, so that you can learn a lot about these amazing creatures and how to take care of them. In the end the beehives will be open to the public as a pedagogical tool.</li> <li>- create wooden constructions for the farm's vegetables. This technique is made to maintain levels of various vegetable "floors" and support the natural life of the soil. If you are interested in understanding the work of nature, that is definitely an experience for you.</li> </ul> We may do both projects but it is unsure at the moment.
Description of accomodation and food :	The volunteers will sleep in tents in the garden, just beside the House of Children and Nature. You will have access to a kitchen, to the bathrooms and a common room for indoor activities. Camp leaders and volunteers will pay attention to the food, provide local products and respect a balanced diet. Volunteers will cook in groups according to a planning that they will decide with the campleaders.
Description of location and leisure:	Volunteers will decide their activities for afternoons and week-ends. Games will be organised by volunteers and campleaders. The solidarity garden is nestled into a verdant setting. Volunteers will decide of their activities for afternoons and weekends. Games will be organised to the initiative of volunteers and campleaders. Very close to the city, 45 min away from Paris, you will discover the capital of France. Near to the garden, you will be able to visit ecological farms and do nice cycling excursions. You will share time with workers and inhabitants of Grigny.
